

WWII

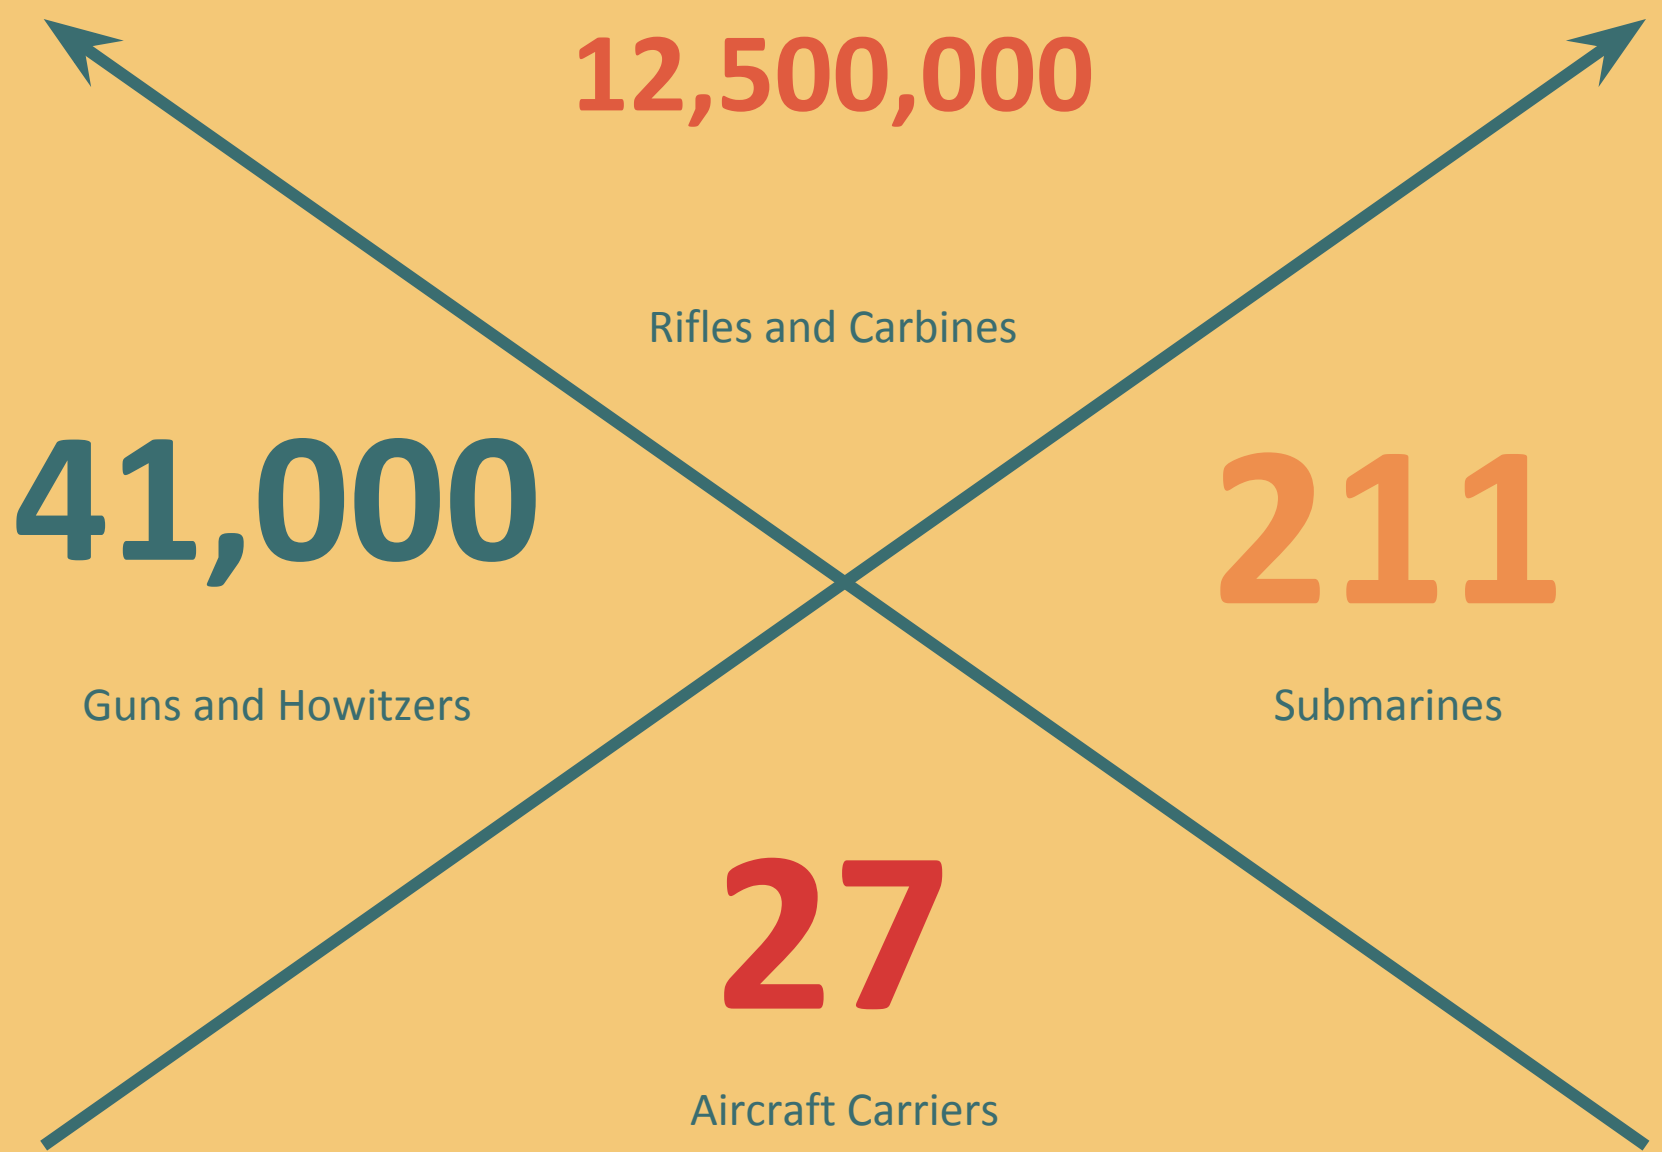

Statistics

The United States produced massive amounts of equipment and armaments during World War !!...

Enough ammunition was produced to kill the world's population 17 times over...

Many women replaced men in the factories to produce weapons, ammunition, and all sorts of products because men were in military service...

The production of materials during WWII helped bring the United States out of The Great Depression...

